mice conditioned to fear electric shock when hearing a noise associated with the shock “simply lost their fear”, says dr Ordspill.com

Maruyama said no foreign vaccine was considered because there was no vaccine that had been approved for use in Japan at the time.

Cell viability and the expression of glial and neuronal cell differentiation markers was examined in glutamate challenged differentiated cells with and without the presence of ash-wex.